

Letter from Oracle Aaron

Hello once again everyone. Thank you for having the heart to engage with this blog. In the past few years I've written three books and co-written a fourth. If you haven't read them yet I hope you will take the time to do so. If reading is not your thing but would still like to engage this material then may I suggest what I do. When there is a book I know I should read then I commit to a certain number of pages per day that I know I can obtain. I'm amazed how easy it becomes and rewarding when I am dedicated and committed to what I know is right. These are key moments of overcoming to engage.

I believe in order to obtain promises we must make ourselves ready. I'm asking for a fresh and new commitment to engage what we've already been preparing to do for some time now.

Soon things will be transformed and those who've made themselves ready will be the first to reap the greatness prepared from Yahweh.

I hope this message resonates in our hearts for it will not be long now for Yahweh's great glory in us will be revealed!

*Blessings and shalom,

Can you believe we will soon close another year! 60 days left in 2021 and 55 days until Christmas! I love the Holidays, cherishing family and friends, sharing meals, making plans for the New Year!

*“A man’s mind plans his way [as he journeys through life],
But the LORD directs his steps and establishes them.” Proverbs 16:9*

As our world has changed and the changes continue and increase, let us rest assured in this one thing;

“And we all, with unveiled face, continually seeing as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are progressively being transformed into His image from [one degree of] glory to [even more] glory, which comes from the Lord, [who is] the Spirit.” 2 Corinthians 3:18

Let us live and love without regret! Let us stand firm in our convictions! Let us not hold our tongues to speak words of love and kindness to give thanks and to affirm one another in particular our children! To make sure they know their futures are bright and filled with glory!

May we be firm protectors of our children and in their eyes be examples of faithful witnesses for Yahweh’s love towards us who believe!

Though the world shakes, may we display our hearts toward Yahweh in confidence and honor as the removal of all that could not stand is being swept away!

1 Corinthians 16:13 Be on guard. Stand firm in the faith. Be courageous. Be strong.

Shalom,
Oracle Teresa
